Seemed very informative.

Nothing substantive, not worth the money.

I find this useful for people who are planning to travel to Florence. This book giving a good guidelines for first timer travelers or looking for a place to visit while you are in Italy. It's worth the read. I love the pictures here, now thinking to visit my sister in law in Italy.

This book fit the bill for us on a recent trip. It had just enough information and suggestions to fill a three day visit to Florence. Sometimes it was a bit lacking in giving the location of certain things. The book is quite thin and can easily fit in your back pocket. Only downgraded it a bit because the photos in the book are generally horrible.
