Through time prophets have existed. God is coming to us today to tell us of His love for each one of us...and that we have lost our way. Our God is a loving God, this by all that is written in this book and the Bible. He loves each one of us deeply and wants us to return to Him, His seed, as He calls us. Prayer is the key to His heart. We have wondered off in a wrong direction, thus He comes to get us on the right track. God is forgiving, God is loving to all that turn to Him, - as stated in this book. Let us take heed. We need to mend our ways, to be repentant, and to follow the right path, per this book and as per the book of Life, the Bible. Regina

As soon as you start reading this book, it gives you glimpses of the spiritual world through the author's experiences. It all seem so unreal !!! but yet it is so real!! The author gives you an account on how Jesus really is and describes His Love for us, also it let us know that Satan is well and alive on planet earth!!!Satan's best lie to humanity was that he does not exists, and boy..... he really succeeded !! well almost.....until you read this book you really understand how he and his minions work, and by the Grace of God how we children of God can fight against his clutches. This book also depicts the trials the author went for purification in order to be in front of God, He is pure and thus we need to be pure to be in His presence. Most importantly this book gives you glimpses of Jesus messages of True Life In God to Vassula. God does not stay still, He is leaving His Throne in Heaven to come to our rescue through His messages, He is our Saviour!!

When God speaks, a soul will have one of two reactions. That of denial or that of repentance. It is our choice. Reading Heaven is Real but so is Hell will no doubt have one of these effects on every soul who will read it. Denial usually means many good intended people have formulated too many opinions (the scriptures of "ME" ... as I like to call it). But without real tears of compunction and a total abandonment to God's 'opinion' (even when it hurts our ego) we can NEVER know the scriptures with our own intellect. Example: How is it that Jesus condemned 'eye for an eye and tooth for a tooth'? If all the scriptures are from God (which I believe they are) , and Jesus did not come to give anything new, then how can He condemn something God set out in the scriptures? Some might take this question as doubt but I ask it in order to prove the delima of the human mind without the Gift of Faith (as it comes from God). The delima is really a Mystery and the Mystery and Beauty of God is that scriptures DO NOT contradict themselves ... so who can know the mind of God? No one, unless God gives you His Grace and Grace DOES NOT COME without suffering. Only through the real suffering of true repentence (comparing ourselves to God rather than to each other!)will the Holy Spirit come to a soul and enlighten that soul to the scriptures. So until true repentence takes place, skeptics of Vassula and her book and the TLIG messages, will always remain. Now for the other reaction, which is repentence. This dying to self is a most marvelous thing! We are better off 'dying' in this lifetime then in the next (that is: the death that sends souls to hell!) It is ONLY repentence that brings the Holy Spirit to us. Not desire or self stated goodness. We are fools if we think that because we are 'nice' people, we know God. Because 'nice' is NOT a virtue and God is no respector of men! I have a nice friend who hates Catholic teaching and by extention Catholics, yet she would give ME the shirt off her back if I needed it (I am not Catholic). She picks and chooses. Does she "know" God and have a personal relationship with Him? She believes so for her prayers are fervent and her devotion is impressive, she looks really 'nice' on the outside. But God says He loves all people, even His enemies! So no ... I do not believe any of us can 'know' God at all when we are not loving each other (even our enemies) So for those people who review this book negatively based on the scriptures of "you", you do great harm to God's saving work. Let's focus more on what unites us rather than what divides us. This book will do just that if we read with an open heart and with only one goal ... to please God and NOT ourselves. I believe Vassula's trials and tribulatins brought her to TRUE repentence and I believe the Lord speaks to her and by extention to us. It can only hurt our 'egos' to listen! Can we hear our Creator's Voice through our egos? Read the book and find out more about your 'self' as compared to God and not Vassula. This book is a GREAT read! I highly recommend it, even for the toughest skeptic.

A gem! A treasure! A gift from above!It is an amazing book. I think the best that I have ever read. It is full of God's mercy and love and I am sure will change every person who will allow the Holy Spirit to join them in the reading of it. It is providing many answers to questions one finds unanswerable and leads to the wonderful conclusion that God's Most Holy Spirit will unite ALL Christians !The sincerity of the author shines through, her struggle with accepting God's approach to her are very moving. Surely, the most rewarding literature ever! I do hope that every shade of Christian will pick up this book and read it not just for their benefit but also for the benefit of their friends, relations, congregations. I recommend it to both believers and those who are not sure if God exists. Surely, a must for our times! A gem!Ewa Allan

This is a divinely inspired and life-changing book. Once you begin reading it you will be unable to put it down. It follows and explains the details of the True Life in God messages, and is a testament to God's tender and ineffable love for us, His children. Everything contained in these writings can be backed up by Scripture, and the fruits of these messages have been very good indeed! Profound conversions, healing and peace..."No good tree bears bad fruit, nor does a bad tree bear good fruit." [Luke 6:43] Read, and reap a great harvest!
