Customer Reviews

Byron Jorjorian is a nature photographer based in Tennessee.

I'm on my second one of these journals. I bought my first one after seeing it in "Oprah's Favorite Things". The pages are so beautiful and put me in the right frame of mind (relaxed) for journaling. The paper is thick and of good quality and the pages are a good size for lots of writing. The cover is soft but sturdy and will not bend at the corners like a regular paperback can. I will continue to purchase this.

ABSOLUTELY LOVED IT ! Every single page in this notebook is filled with wonderful pictures, and the printing quality is very satisfactory as well. The color of overall pictures in the notebooks aren't so strong so no matter which pen you use for this notebook, the letter stands out. I'm very looking forward to purchase this product once again.

I bought this journal thinking that it had quotes in it to start off your thoughts. Instead it has beautiful pictures of sky, land and water to quick start your thoughts into lovely words. My BFF moved to Florida and it was the perfect gift to give her as we said our goodbye's after 26 years. I will buy another one for my Grand daughter, and for myself. It is the perfect gift for any age, and especially for aspiring writers.

Beautiful journal. I've been journaling for years and this is such a nice, unique addition to my other journals. It has gorgeous spreads on each page that make the experience of writing more exciting. It would be a great gift to anyone who loves doodling/writing.

Gorgeous images from page to page. Nice quality paper! The images are at the perfect saturation to be able to see what you are writing as well as enjoy the beautiful colors of the images as well.

This journal has gorgeous photography and is definitely more inspirational than writing in a plain lined journal. It would make a perfect birthday or graduation gift for anyone who enjoys keeping a journal.

I love this journal. This is my 2nd one.

Great printing, vibrant colors, lots of different pictures.
