Raleigh North Carolian Highlights Tour: A Self-guided Pictorial Walking Tour (visualtraveltours Book 283)

Synopsis

HALF-PRICE SALE - WAS $9.99 - LIMITED TIME OFFER
The first thing visitors notice is how green the city is, with lots of grand old trees and vibrantly flowering shrubs; even on the interstate highways you feel like you're in the country because the buildings are discreetly tucked behind lush foliage. Welcome to my home - the state capital, gateway to Research Triangle Park, and home of technology and pharmaceutical companies. Raleigh is spread out over a large area and has been growing rapidly for decades, so it isn't easy to find your way around. That's why you need to follow me! This tour focuses on the downtown center, but there are many other attractions in the area that are worthwhile. As a long-time resident of Raleigh, it is my pleasure to take you to a few of my favorite places.

AUTHOR - John Suddath is a long-time resident of Raleigh who is comfortable navigating the town and visiting all the interesting sights. He has traveled extensively throughout the United States and Europe and knows how to find a bargain. John has been a writer for 40 years, including trade and technical journals, and authored a memoir. He published the magazine "Texas Trees" for 20 years, and currently publishes three websites and a blog.

Customer Reviews

Got the eBook to learn a bit more about the area where I live, but have to say I was very disappointed. I really was expecting it would allow me to get into the details of what is in and around Raleigh. That wasn't the case. Very limited detail provided about very high level touring. Honestly, I felt it was not $9.99 worth of material. I ended up doing my own research, creating my own tour, and seeing all that needed to be seen. To give it some credit and barely two stars, there are some nice pictures and if you want to do a quick fly-by driving tour, maybe, just maybe, it would suffice. My advice, save your money.
