I love this book. There's a combination of humor, practical insights and in-depth knowledge that the author does a wonderful job of communicating. The tone is a friendly one which makes me feel like I could really enjoy sitting sipping some wine with the author. She covers everything from historical trivia to the things someone needs to know to choose and enjoy wine. I loved the fact that the author emphasizes a "no judgement" approach to what readers enjoy in wine. The book covers all of the topics that someone needs to know to pick and enjoy wine in all kinds of situations. It was especially interesting to learn about some of the marketing practices behind the placement of wine in stores. I
