The Whirlwind (Imager Chronicles Book 3)

Synopsis

Carved from the Blood Mountains, a perpetual reminder of Imagerâ€™s great love for mankind, the mysterious Bloodstone opens a gateway into multiple dimensions. As Denise, Nathan, and Joshua visit these fantastic realities and learn of Imagerâ€™s unfathomable compassion, they must also battle strange creations while fighting the internal wars of their own hearts. This profoundly creative and entertaining allegory for children eight to eighty is a sparkling-fresh depiction of lifeâ€™s most important journey. In a dramatic showdown the children finally trust Imager enough to receive his Breath. But is there enough power in it to overcome the evil they must face? Moreover, can his Breath protect them from the crushing mirrors that reflect their past failures in the Sea of Justice?

Customer Reviews

The Imager Chronicles remind us of the Narnia series with the amazing imagery and fantasy elements! I always read the first book in a new series before letting my son read them and I couldn't put this series down! The plot lines are well-written and the moral lessons are amazing throughout the stories! We love Bill Myers books!

Amazing series!

Everything was good, as advertised.

Joshua begins running tests to figure out the bloodstone "scientificly". The Imager and Bobok, the evil "villians" of Fayrah, Journey to the Upside-Down kingdom, (Earth), and convince Josh that he can be made perfect. As he trains to be perfect, Denise and Nathan search for someone that is full, or Rebreathed, to save Josh from the Sea of Justice. In the end, it's surprising to both children who must save Josh. Wonderful writing and insights into Christian living, yet a very enjoyable book for all ages.
