Customer Reviews

i like this one. it was focused largely on exposition of the main character. as she grows in the story we find out about her. we find out about her struggles and her weaknesses, her history and her strengths. it makes her much more believable as a character that we get to find out so much about her. also while we delve into her personal life, a sinister story unfolds. now if we think about it, this is a shorter story so we have a lot packed into a small space. it is engrossing stuff too. When Paige's past and her present come crashing together there are some great action packed, tense moments and some sexy moments too. it is very compelling and this one, like the stories before it, sell the
