Customer Reviews

Noted Colorado historian Kenneth Jessen has over twenty books to his name, including Ghost Towns, Colorado Style (a three-volume set covering Coloradoâ€™s mountains); Ghost Towns, Eastern Colorado; and Coloradoâ€™s Best Ghost Towns.

Got this for a friend as a gift. I had one ages ago (didn't get custody of it in the divorce, though) and had forgotten what a great little book this was until we picked it up for a friend. Now I'm going to have to get one to replace the one I 'lost.'

I am a serious amateur photographer specializing in travel and wildlife photography. One of my photographic passions is photographing ghost towns particularly since I know that they are disappearing and my photos preserve some of this history. This series of 3 books is my favorite reference for Colorado Ghost Towns.

Great way to explore the history of Colorado

This is going to be in the "Reference Section" at your local library years from now. This one goes into detail about the lost communities of Colorado boom and bust past. Read this one, and you will want the other volumes in this series. Don't put this on your wish list - get it - you won't regret it.
