National Geographic Readers: Safari

Synopsis

Safari day dawns on the savanna. The African light gives the sky colors seen nowhere else on Earth. Soon, an amazing array of wild animals are yawning, screeching, and growling to life. Meet the elephants, lions, giraffes, zebras, hippos, and the laughing hyenas of the wilderness and find out who's friends with whom and why! National Geographic supports K-12 educators with ELA Common Core Resources. Visit www.natgeoed.org/commoncore for more information.

Customer Reviews

Gail Tuchman has had a dual career as a publishing industry executive and a prolific writer of children's fiction and nonfiction. She has long been involved in early reading programs both as a publisher and an author, and has developed several of Scholastic's evergreen product lines for the educational market. Gail lives in New York City.

My son really likes it. He is almost 2. I usually don't like digital books, but my son is a little rough on books so this is a great alternative. He loves all the animals in it!

Grandson loves the book

My 2 year old loves this book! It's light & portable & great for travel. The photos are nice & the narrative very simple.

My daughter is really into learning about animals. So these books are perfect for her. I can't wait until Christmas to come for her to open them. She is going to love them.

My three year old loves this book. He enjoys it because it's repetitive so he knows the words and will "read" along with me which makes him feel like a big boy. In my opinion it was worth the buy and I recommend this book to parents of toddlers and preschoolers.

Awesome book! My granddaughter is 1st grade & she loved a NatGeo Kids magazine I picked up a couple weeks ago. I can't wait to give her this. I decided to order direct from rather than do the subscription based on numerous reviews concerning subscription/renewal issues. It is full of info & pictures & is gift quality!

I give this book five stars because it is an easy reader for my grandchildren! They loved all of the pictures also!!!

Sweet, charming...especially well written for kids and any reader connecting to kids; my grandkids love it! Wonderful, interesting photography throughout.
