Lovely art! It's a little deceiving with the whole 50 artists thing, as there are only 12 poster sized pieces and then 50 little thumbnails at the back, but I thought that would probably be the case since it is a calendar after all.

I got this calendar for my husband for his birthday. After the year is over I plan on framing the detachable prints to hang in our office/"nerd cave." Note: if you're looking for a calendar with space to write on, this is not it. More of a reference for dates.

The art on this is lovely, but it is a terrible calendar. All the days are show in a single line at the bottom, so you have to squint to see them, let alone what day of the week each is; there's nowhere to mark down holidays or other date-related notes. So if you want some very nice Trek-related posters, go for it, but if you're looking for a functional calendar, steer clear. I'll be back to my standard calendar next year.

It's a bit late in 2017, but wanted to share I love this poster, it's just that the prints curl a bit rather than hang flat and flush to the wall.

I'd give this 5 stars for the artwork but the calendar (you know, the actual functional part of the item?) left a lot to be desired. It was very small and linear instead of the typical Sunday - Saturday grid layout. Overall I'm satisfied but I wasn't expecting to have to buy another calendar to use with my calendar.

Sure to be a big hit with any real fan.

I love it! It's beautiful! Not really great as a useful calendar as there are just numbers for the days and no squares to write in. But That's Not The Point! The point is that it is gorgeous and full of interesting and original Star Trek art.

I am in love with this calendar and if you're a trek fan, I think you will too! The pages are thick and easily converted into prints after the month is through!
