Melinda Bonk, MB Publishers is also the Author of Alternative Medicine Yellows, by Future Medicine Publishing. While discovering the latest state of the art natural remedies she cured her PMS with wild yam and natural progesterone. Presently, she lectures about the benefits of natural progesterone and phytoestrogens for women.

As owner of a health food & supplement company in the UK, I was very surprised to find a book such as this available. The book is very simple to follow and does the main job of EDUCATING people that there are alternatives to DRUGS. We sell Wild Yam Cream here, but the main problem is getting women to understand how it works and why it is best to try this natural remedy first - not last! I enjoyed the humour in the book and could sympathise with many of the situations the author found herself in. I'm very pleased to give this book my backing. It ought to be a 'must' for EVERY woman on the western world. Should anyone in the UK wish to try Wild Yam Cream, they can email me here at SunLHealth@AOL.Com. Or write to: Sunlife Health, 84 Scott Drive, WICKFORD SS12 9RU. Many thanks, Paula Pont
