Questions Of Destiny: Mental Retardation And Curative Education

Synopsis

How should we think about the mentally retarded human being and how should he or she be cared for? These are the questions Carlo Pietzner addresses in this important work. Topics discussed include the origin and elements of the anthroposophical approach to curative education, the curative teacher, and inner conditions for curative educational work.

Carlo Pietzner was born in 1915 in Vienna. As an art student, he was introduced to anthroposophy and Dr. Karl K  nig, founder of the international Camphill movement for children and adults in need of special care. Pietzner helped to further the work of Camphill in Northern Ireland and the U.S. His artistic efforts have ranged from stained glass murals and paintings to novels and drama. He served the Anthroposophical Society in America and was known internationally for his many lectures and consulting work. He died in 1986 at Camphill Village, Copake, New York.
